

Great Gatsby Gala III

This year's gala raised money for the Connellsville Area Falcon Foundation. Many guests arrived dressed for the 20's. Linden Hall was beautiful and everyone had a wonderful time while raising money for a great cause.

Workers' Comp Speaker

Are you tired of being overcharged by your workers' compensation program? Join David R. Leng, Workers' Compensation expert and author of Stop Being Frustrated & Overcharged Year After Year by Your Workers' Compensation, for an informative presentation on November 12th, 2015 at the Carnegie Free Library of Connellsville.

The presentation will take place in the Library auditorium from 10:00-11:00 am. It is free to attend (donations will be accepted for the Carnegie Free Library of Connellsville).

Businesses will learn:

- Understand what your employees should be doing, so that you are not overcharged.
- How insurance companies get you to pay them back for your employees injuries, plus interest.

- How to make yourself more attractive to insurance companies to help slash your premiums.
